...RESPONDENTS

(By Sri A.R.Holla, Advocate)

These Writ Petitions are filed under Article 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India Praying to quash the order dated 8.3.2013 passed by the Central Administrative Tribunal, Bangalore Bench in OA.No.231/12 available at Annexure-A.

These Writ Petitions coming on for preliminary hearing this day, K.L.Manjunath J., made the following:-

ORDER

The learned counsel for the parties submit that the question involved in this petitions are identical to the question raised by the Union of India before the Hon'ble Supreme Court in SLP No.36148-36150/2013 and connected Civil Appeal No.8875-8876/2011. He further submits that if the SLP filed by the Union of India were to be dismissed, then the petitioners have to comply with the order of the Central Administrative Tribunal.

2. Accordingly, it is submitted that these petitions may be disposed off by directing the petitioners herein to comply with the directions issued by the Central Administrative Tribunal, after the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in SLP No.36148-36150/2013.

3. In view of the submission of the learned counsel for the parties, these writ petitions are disposed off directing the petitioners to comply with the directions issued by the Central Administrative Tribunal in these matter in the event the SLP filed by the Union of India were to be dismissed and if the SLP were to be allowed, the order of the Central Administrative Tribunal stands rejected.
